OBJECTIVE

A 20-minute informational conversation or one-day shadow with a Wellington-area private equity professional, to learn what the work looks like day-to-day and what to study before pursuing the field in college.

PROFILE

Curious 15-year-old high school student on the Cambridge AICE Diploma track, raised in an international family and trilingual in English, Portuguese, and Spanish. Drawn to private equity through an early interest in how businesses are valued, financed, and improved. Comfortable presenting himself professionally with adults and prepared to show up on time, listen carefully, and follow up in writing.

AREAS OF INTEREST

- Consumer brands & hospitality investing
- How firms source and evaluate deals
- Public vs. private market differences
- Reading: Barbarians at the Gate (in progress)
- Tracking S&P 500 and a small watchlist
- Family-business operations (father in adjusting)

- Daily training built around discipline, endurance, and time management — the same habits I'd bring to a desk.

Varsity Swim Team · Wellington High School

WHAT I'M ASKING FOR

A short informational conversation — in person, on a call, or by email — about how you ended up in the field and what a high-school student should focus on now. I am not asking for a paid role. If your firm ever takes on a one-day high-school shadow, I'd be grateful to be considered.
